

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Please! We need more competition in particular markets, not less! Diversity of viewpoints and expression is dwindling, and as the media becomes more and more controlled by giant media conglomerations, it will be harder and harder to hear independent voices.

The media and democracy are not served by giant media corporations controlling many different outlets. The rules are far too weak already; to loosen them further would be a tragedy for this country.

For the sake of all Americans, please don't do this!
